On gardens

A garden is a small city with a stricter law. The vine does not negotiate, and the fig keeps its own calendar through the whole of the year.

Second bed

Write the names of what you planted beside the row so that memory is not the only index.